Memo of Understanding

- 1) Move pro-actively to officially and legally expand the TCCC "Administrative Area" from Cherokee County, to a "Multi-County Administrative Area" that would include all three of TCCC's "Service Area" counties of Cherokee, Clay, and Graham;
- 2) As part of the "Multi-County Administrative Area" agreement, establish the following funding formula for each member county's annual financial responsibility "for the local support and local administration" [NCGS 115D-2(1)]:

Clay County - 16.5 percent

Graham County - 12.1 percent

Clay County $198 K (16.5%)

Graham County $145 K (12.1%)

- 4) For any amount of funding request above the established base, the highest amount supported by a majority of the three partner counties shall be funded by all three partner counties at their respective percentages;

Maria-

I hate to bother you again. However, I am unable to find where the Cherokee County Board of Commissioners reappoint Judith Davis to the CAC-LTC. If they did, please send me the date when her term is to expire. If she has not been reappointed, I respectfully request the Cherokee County Board of Commissioners reappoint Judith Davis the the CAC-LTC for a 3-year term.
